His new single "Isn't It Obvious?" is a sparkling slice of power-pop that examines a doomed asymmetrical relationship with a tune that hearkens back to the classic jangle of Dwight Twilley, The Records and Shoes. Relentlessly upbeat and catchy as a box of fishhooks, it's the sort of three minute pop song that screams "summer" and "play it again."

And if who Jesus is isn't obvious to you, and you're still questioning, still doubting, still wondering - that's OK. But don't be surprised if one day, seemingly out of the blue, it occurs to you that you don't doubt or question or wonder as much as you have been; that for some reason, this guy Jesus is starting to make sense to you
