The book ends with a twist that sets up the final book in an interesting way, and makes it so that the conclusion of the series isn't as cut and dry as you might assume. Over all, Spook's: Alice, was a brilliant penultimate book in a fantastic series, and an amazing insight into the character of Alice that I've been waiting eleven books to read.

This book expands on the life of Alice as she develops her powers even before she has met Tom. It nicely bridges the gap and we are taken back and forth as she does battle in the Fiend's domain to find the third sword with which to destroy him. As usual it is gripping, a real page-turner as she meets old enemies of the dark.
